“Family Read, Play &Learn” spaces are equipped with literacy-rich materials to support young children’s early brain and language development and help prepare them for success in school and beyond.

“Family Read, Play &Learn” kits come in four sizes and can be easily customized to fit any family court space and budget. Kits will be shipped within 7-10 business days.

Research Shows
• “Family Read, Play & Learn” spaces significantly enhanced children’s access to print and time spent on activities that support school readiness such as talking, reading, singing, writing and playing.

• Customers reported high praise and felt greater loyalty to businesses with these literacy spaces.

• Children were observed engaging in 30 times more literacy activities in environments that included the “Family Read, Play & Learn” kits compared to environments without.

• Based on the National Council of Juvenile and Family Court Judges work in trauma consultations for juvenile and family courts across the country, the most common recommendations include: renovating signage/ensure signs are in English and Spanish; making courtrooms more child- and family-friendly, and increasing educational materials available to court consumers.

If you have any questions or are interested in ordering “Family Read, Play & Learn” Kits, please reach out to LaundryCares at admin@laundrycares.org or 800-570-5629.

Replenishing items is quick and easy! Email admin@laundrycares.org.
Testimonials

“A fundamental test for our country is whether or not we can make early learning available and real to all kids and families – so that every child shows up to kindergarten ready to learn and thrive. I was proud to help launch the first family court ‘Family Read, Play & Learn’ space with our partners in Milwaukee, and you can help ensure that it’s not the last.”

– Chelsea Clinton, Vice Chair, Clinton Foundation

“Having public spaces where kids can read, connect with their families, and play games, instills in them a desire to learn and to expand their horizons. Every time we can encourage a child towards lifelong reading and learning, we make a difference in that child’s future.”

– Judge Ramona A. Gonzalez, Former President, National Council of Juvenile and Family Court Judges

“It made sense to bring a ‘Family Read, Play & Learn’ space to Milwaukee’s Children Court. Children’s learning doesn’t pause because it’s in the courthouse waiting area. Before the space was added I saw restless or idle children waiting with their caregivers. Once the space was added, children and their caregivers were talking, reading, and smiling together.”

– Dea Wright, Director, Office of Early Childhood Initiatives

The National Council of Juvenile and Family Court Judges (NCJFCJ) is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit corporation and does not receive monetary benefit from sales of the Family Court “Family Read, Play & Learn” Kits.